NAME

January 1943

LORDSBURG INTERMENT-C.

This is from a World War II composition book written by Takuritsu Morita. He calls it a Japanese Language Teachers' Federation record. He lived in Oakland, CA from 1915 to around 1919, then in Alameda. In 1933 he moved his family to Mountain View. He was teaching Japanese in Alameda and Mountain View, and it is surely why he was a part of the teacher's group that met while incarcerated in Lordsburg, New Mexico. While the text of his writings has not been translated, it was probably a record of their meetings.

January 1943.
